FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

THIRTY-EIGHT MEMBERS INDUCTED INTO BETA GAMMA SIGMA AT USD

Thirty-eight members were inducted into the University of San Diego Chapter of Beta Gamma Sigma, the national business scholastic honorary fraternity, at an installation dinner recently at the Catamaran Hotel.

Harold B. Starkey, President of First Federal Savings, was inducted as this year's honorary member. Membership was bestowed on Mr. Starkey in recognition of his outstanding contribution as a San Diego business leader and of his support of the University of San Diego.

Membership invitations to Beta Gamma Sigma are based on academic achievement and high moral character. To be eligible, a junior must rank in the top five percent of the class; a senior in the top ten percent of the class; and a master's candidate in the top twenty percent.

In addition to Starkey, twelve juniors, fifteen graduating seniors seven MBA graduates, and three faculty members of USD's School of Business Administration were inducted at the ceremony presided over by outgoing president Kerry Barnsley.

The 153 national chapters of Beta Gamma Sigma are all located at colleges and universities that are accredited by the American Assembly of Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB).
